

WITH PERFECT HEALTH IN XXI CENTURY AND IN FAVORABLE ENVIRONMENT!

Ecological policy of top management of Belmedpreparaty RUE

The leadership of Belmedpreparaty RUE realizing the influence of production activity to the environment, which is determined by the Charter of enterprise, takes the responsibility to the personnel, the consumers of our products, all persons concerned the implementation of environmental safety of engineering used at production of medicines and realization of subsidiary process.

The ecological programs of our enterprise will be carried out based on complex decision of solvable problems, consequence improvement of technical state of production, rational and effective usage of natural resources, heat energy and electric energy, realizing the sustainable development of enterprise.

Our main foundations:

- Implementation of production activity in accordance with acting requirements nature conservation legislation and others requirements;
- Prevention of pollution of the environment and exception of possibility of occurrence of emergency situation;
- Permanent reducing of loading to the environment and implementation of permanent improvement of nature conservation activity results;
- An effective function of the ecological control system.

Achievement of our goals is based on implementation of ecological education of staff, interest and personal liability of the environment.

We are ready to publicly inform about the questions of environmental protection all persons concerned, cooperate and collaborate with them.